

MANY INJURED FATALLY HURT

Over 100 Lives Lost by Explosion on the French Battleship Iena.

TOULON IN DEEP MOURNING

ARRIVAL OF MINISTER OF MARINE THOMPSON.

Toulon, France, March 13.—Minister of Marine Thompson arrived here this morning from Paris. The roll of the battleship Iena on which the disastrous explosion occurred yesterday was called and 97 men replied to their names. Those of the crew who are injured are quartered temporarily in the naval barracks. Twenty-four officers and engineers are reported to be safe, and there are forty-four of the crew lying in the hospitals seriously injured.

As the officers and crew numbered 636, it will be seen that 133 are not accounted for, but the naval authorities consider it most probable that a large number of these have sought refuge with relatives or friends in Toulon.

Later in the day forty-one of the missing men turned up, leaving 114 unaccounted for or killed.

Toulon in Mourning.

The town is in deep mourning. Crowds are gathered at the gates of the arsenal and dock, anxiously awaiting the announcement of the names of those who lost their lives in the explosion. The Minister of Marine Thompson, who was accompanied by his staff, upon his arrival here consulted with the port admiral, after which he proceeded to the scene of the disaster. All around the drydock were strewn pieces of shells.

The afterpart of the battleship is completely destroyed, the plates being twisted and bent.

Revising the Bodies.

Minister Thompson, with a small party, boarded the bulk of the Iena, whose forepart was found to be almost intact. The minister remained on board an hour, watching the work of the men who are removing the bodies and parts of bodies and taking them ashore.

Later the minister questioned the officers who escaped. He then visited the injured officers and others in the hospitals and promised promotion to the most deserving.

Flicking Sight.

A correspondent of the Associated Press who boarded the Iena found the fighting tops of the vessel bent over, an enormous breach amidships and upon the mainmast a hole about eighteen feet high. Amidst the shattered steel plates, the correspondent saw a heap of human bones, arms and twisted limbs, all that remained of thirty bodies were taken from after burial and which were being sewed up in sheets in order to be prepared to being taken ashore.

It was impossible to identify any of the bodies represented in the photographs. The bodies of several suffocated sailors were found between decks.

At the hospital the correspondent was informed that many of the injured men were likely to succumb.

Taft's Philippine Visit

Secretary of War Will Be on Hand at the Opening Session of the Assembly.

Washington, March 13.—Secretary Taft's proposed visit to the Philippines in September to attend the opening of the first Philippine assembly has directed attention toward the new legislative body to be created for the islands. The assembly will consist of thirty-one members, apportioned upon the basis of one delegate for each 9,000 persons, and provision is made to increase the number to a total of 50. It will in a general way correspond to the American house of representatives, while the Philippine commission will correspond to the United States senate, and the acts of the assembly must secure the approval of the commission before they become laws.

Elections are to be held on July 30. Secretary Taft will start for the islands in August and the first assembly will convene in September.

Subsequent elections for the assembly are to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday of November in odd-numbered years, the delegates to hold office for two years.

The election law of the Philippines requires that voters must be males 21 years old, citizens of the Philippines. The Australian ballot system is to be used and heavy penalties are prescribed for corrupt practices.

GRAND JURY AT BOISE.

So Far the Promised Sensation Has Not Materialized.

(Special to The Herald.)
Boise, Ida., March 13.—The United States grand jury is proceeding with its work, but there is no evidence of sensational developments. There seems to be nothing inquired into the Lewiston country. Five witnesses have been before the jury. Three of these are from Lewiston and the fourth is a resident of Boise. The other two are special agents.

The grand jury has been assured there are no sensational developments likely. However, it is possible there is something new in the old case which justifies the rumors that have been in circulation.

JUMPED TO HER DEATH.

Cincinnati, O., March 13.—Leaping head-first from a window upon the thirteenth floor of the Truett building, Gertrude Hanish, aged 35 years, a stenographer, committed suicide today in sight of hundreds of people. In falling she struck and broke an electric feed wire before landing upon the curbstone near the busiest corner in the city. The cause is unknown for the suicide.

HUMMEL PUT BY PROSECUTION

Convict-Lawyer Would Swear That Evelyn Thaw Did Not Accuse White.

OBJECTION BY DEFENSE

DELMAS GIVEN TIME TO LOOK UP AUTHORITIES.

New York, March 13.—After a forenoon session occupied almost entirely by District Attorney Jerome in a bitter denunciation of the defendant and his wife, the trial of Harry K. Thaw for the murder of Stanford White was adjourned shortly after 12 o'clock today until tomorrow morning. The prosecuting attorney found his opportunity to attack Thaw and Evelyn Nesbit in arguing on the question of the admissibility of the testimony, which Abraham Hummel, the lawyer who is under sentence for subornation of perjury in the Dodge-Morse divorce case, has to offer. It was to enable Delphin M. Delmas, leading counsel for the defense, to consult authorities and frame a reply to Mr. Jerome, and also to allow the latter an opportunity of completing the hypothetical question, which he is to put to his experts, that the early adjournment was ordered. Mr. Jerome said he hopes to close the rebuttal for the people tomorrow evening.

What Hummel Would Testify.

During his argument today, the district attorney asserted that Hummel would swear Evelyn Nesbit told him three days after her return from Europe in 1905 that Thaw had beaten her cruelly because she would not sign papers for her preparation, falsely accusing Stanford White of having drugged and betrayed her. Mr. Jerome contended that she had told more money that Thaw seemed bent upon getting Stanford White in the penitentiary; that the statement that White betrayed her was not true; that she had never been drugged and betrayed; and that Thaw was consumed with rage when she refused to sign papers for her preparation, containing "lies against Stanford White."

"These things were put in the form of an affidavit," declared Mr. Jerome, "and that affidavit was subscribed to by Evelyn Nesbit when she knew what she was doing and what the paper contained."

Allegation in Affidavit.

"We want to show that the girl who told this remarkable story here on the witness stand swore at another time, under the solemnity of an oath, that naked, striped stark naked—she had endured the beating and the drugging and the betrayal rather than swear to his false statements that Stanford White had drugged and ruined her."

Mr. Jerome argued that the material point of the case is whether Evelyn Nesbit told Thaw the story of her alleged ruin by Stanford White. Without the story in evidence, he declared, the reason for the defendant's alleged insanity disappears. The prosecutor plainly admitted the importance of young Mrs. Thaw's testimony to show her own reputation of the charges which, on the witness stand, she renewed against White.

"Thus," he concluded, "the jury may infer from her own statements after her return from Europe in 1905 whether or not she had within two months of that time told this defendant the things she said she did."

Objection of Delmas.
Mr. Delmas objected to Hummel as a witness on the ground that his testimony had to do with the truth or falsity of Mrs. Thaw's narrative and was not permissible under the rules of evidence. He proceeded with his argument tomorrow. Mr. Jerome's contention is that while he might not attack the truth or falsity of Mrs. Thaw's statement that she was betrayed by White, he can attack the truth of her assertion that she told the story to "The Herald."

Mr. Delmas first sought today to interrupt Hummel's testimony by showing that he was acting as Evelyn Nesbit's legal adviser and counsel when she made certain statements to him. Hummel evaded this, however, by saying he was acting solely as White's counsel and not as her legal adviser. He said that he had been contemplated in the half of Miss Nesbit. He said he was paid a yearly retainer by White and could not say exactly what he charged her for. He said that he was paid $1,000 a month and that he was paid $1,000 a month and that he was paid $1,000 a month.

Evelyn's Testimony.
When Evelyn Thaw was on the witness stand she said that White came to see her one evening in 1905 and asked her what she had told Hummel about him, adding that she had told him that she was betrayed by White. She said that she had told him that she was betrayed by White and that she had told him that she was betrayed by White.

Young Mrs. Thaw's testimony regarding the affidavit was that Stanford White had taken her to Hummel's office after telling her "lots of horrible things about Harry" and that he had told her that he was betrayed by White. She said that she had told him that she was betrayed by White and that she had told him that she was betrayed by White.

"Mr. Hummel," she said, "then dictated a lot of things to a man and put in lots about Harry Thaw that wasn't true at all."

She denied signing any paper in Hummel's office, but admitted having signed some papers later in White's studio. She claimed she did not know what the papers were. Sometimes she signed, she said, she demanded that White show her the papers. She was taken to Hummel's office and there a paper bearing her signature was shown her and she said she was not allowed to examine it, she declared.

Affidavit Photographed.
Almost since the beginning of the trial District Attorney Jerome has been trying to put in evidence a photographic copy of the affidavit. In developing yesterday that the copy was made by the same photographer who had been employed by Stanford White to make the "tired but happy" and other pictures of Evelyn Nesbit.

Mr. Jerome continues quite optimistic about bringing the taking of testimony to a close this week, but others who have followed the trial believe the end is still ten days or two weeks away.

NEW BILLS IN SENATE.

Six Measures Were Introduced Yesterday.

What is probably the last batch of bills to be introduced in the senate at its present session was presented yesterday afternoon. None are of any particular importance. The list follows:

Senator Benner X. Smith was of the same opinion, but Senators Miller and Seely thought differently. The vote resulted in nine for the bill and six against. As it lacked a majority of the senate the bill failed, but Senator X. Smith gave notice of reconsideration and the measure will come up again today.

The vote follows:
Ayes—Bullen, Callister, Clegg, Gardner, Hollingsworth, Hulanicki, Benner X. Smith, Walton and President Love, Total, 9.
Nays—Senators Brinkerhoff, Lawrence, Seely, Easband and Park, Total, 6.

The senate at its morning session also passed senate bills Nos. 173 and 184, relating to the fees to be charged at the university and agricultural colleges. Senate bill No. 183, by Lawrence, relating to appeals to the supreme court, and house bill No. 246, by the committee on education, relating to the education of the deaf, dumb and blind, were also passed.

MORE PAY FOR LOCAL TEACHERS

Senate Passes Bill Increasing School Levy in Salt Lake One Mill.

Teachers in the Salt Lake schools are assured of more pay. The senate yesterday morning passed house bill No. 217, raising the limit which Salt Lake may levy for school purposes from 2 1/2 to 3 mills. This is the measure which the local board of education and the teachers' association have been striving to get through ever since the session began and now it needs only the governor's signature to become a law.

Besides increasing the salaries of teachers it will aid the school board in solving many financial questions which are perplexing it, as at present the amount of money derived from taxation is not sufficient to keep all the schools going for the entire school year without a deficit.

Senator Lawrence by his vote saved the teachers from waiting for another year for the increase. The roll had been called and it stood 11 to 3 in favor of the bill. This is enough to pass but it takes 12 votes to carry the emergency clause which makes the bill take effect upon its approval, otherwise it does not take effect for 60 days, and in this instance it would mean that the time of leaving the year's taxes would elapse before the measure would become operative.

Coming into the room just as the roll call was concluded, Mr. Lawrence was requested to vote. He deliberated for some time, saying that he was against raising the rate of taxation in this city, although he believed teachers should be well paid.

"The teachers are watching you," laughingly commented Senator Hollingsworth, and this seemed to touch a tender spot, and with a show of considerable fortitude the senator replied:

"Well, I would rather cry on the side of the teachers and I will vote aye."

GRIST OF BILLS PASSED

Senate Session Yesterday Afternoon Was of a Business-Like Nature.

The senate passed sixteen measures of unimportant character yesterday afternoon and every time an important bill became the next order of business it was invariably postponed until today.

No debates enlivened the dreary routine of reading the bills and roll call and it was extremely difficult at times to maintain a quorum.

The measures passed were senate bills Nos. 3, extending the barbers' license law to the whole state; No. 186, by Clegg, providing that persons who neglect their children shall be guilty of felony and thus allowing their extradition from other states; Senate bill No. 187, by Smith, relating to the time of the payment of special assessments, and house bill No. 138, relating to good roads and providing for a system of state highways.

No. 87, by Pedersen, providing for a state board of accountancy; No. 223, by Marks, allowing city courts to employ stenographers; No. 174, by Benson, relating to the duties of the state treasurer; No. 282, by Robinson, defining the word "building" in connection with arson; No. 182, by Randall, providing for an increase in the salary of the Ogden municipal judge from $2,500 to $3,000; No. 122, by Benson, relating to the time for which flour licenses may be granted; No. 77, by Fuller, relating to official maps; No. 220, by Marks, regulating the practice of optometry and creating a state board of optometry.

SPRING GUN BILL KILLED

Exciting Debate in the Senate Yesterday Morning Over the Merits of the Measure.

An exciting and amusing discussion of whether spring guns which are used to exterminate coyotes are in reality "man-killers" came up in the senate yesterday morning and nearly every one took part in the debate.

The measure under consideration was senate bill No. 174 by Gardner, prohibiting the use of these guns in the state. Mr. Gardner called them infernal machines and was seconded by Senator Walton, who said that the legislature was going crazy apparently "over this coyote extermination business."

Senator Benner X. Smith was of the same opinion, but Senators Miller and Seely thought differently. The vote resulted in nine for the bill and six against. As it lacked a majority of the senate the bill failed, but Senator X. Smith gave notice of reconsideration and the measure will come up again today.

PLUNGED THROUGH BRIDGE

Freight Train on West Pennsylvania Wrecked and Three Trainmen Killed.

Pittsburgh, March 13.—Three men drowned, a railroad bridge washed away and an engine and five freight cars in the water are the results of the rapid rise during last night of Deer creek, near Harmarsville, Pa., on the West Pennsylvania railroad. The dead: J. R. Mikesell, an engineer; W. J. Cantwell, fireman; J. M. Johns, brakeman.
A freight train which entered upon the bridge got no farther than the second span when it gave way. Before the engineer, fireman or brakeman, upon the forward part of the train could realize what happened the bridge went down, carrying the engine, trainmen and five freight cars with it. One of the loaded freight cars was carried down the creek a quarter of a mile. Rain has fallen for the past twenty-four hours.

FEARFUL ITCHING BURNING SORES

Boy in Misery 12 Years—Eczema Spread Over Body in Rough Scales, Cracked, Inflamed, and Swollen—Case Pronounced Incurable, but Completely Cured by Two Sets of Cuticura Remedies.

HIS SKIN NOW FINE AND SMOOTH AS SILK

"I wish to inform you that you, wonderful Cuticura, has put a stop to twelve years of misery I passed with my son. As an infant I noticed on his body a red spot and treated same with different remedies for about five years, but when the spot began to get larger I put him under the care of doctors. Under their treatment the disease spread to four different parts of his body. The doctor the doctors treated him the worse it grew. During the day it would get rough and form like scales. At night it would be cracked, inflamed, and badly swollen, with terrible burning and itching. When I think of his suffering, it nearly breaks my heart. His screams could be heard down-stairs. The suffering of my son made me full of misery. I had no ambition to work, to eat, nor could I sleep."

"One doctor told me that my son's eczema was incurable, and gave it up for a bad job. One evening I saw an article in the paper about the wonderful Cuticura and decided to give it a trial. I tell you that Cuticura Ointment is worth its weight in gold, and when I had used the first box of Ointment there was a great improvement, and by the time I had used the second set of Cuticura Soap, Cuticura Ointment, and Cuticura Resolvent my child was cured. He is now twelve years old, and his skin is as fine and smooth as silk. Michael Steinman, 7 Summer Avenue, Brooklyn, N. Y., April 16, 1905."
